

DIGGING DEEP: 50 YEARS OF SECTION 106 ARCHAEOLOGY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Session Organizer: Joe Baker, PENNDOT

Session Moderator: Angela Jaillet-Wentling, McCormick Taylor

DIGGING DEEP: BURIED LANDSCAPES OF PENNSYLVANIA

Meadowcroft Rockshelter (Avella)

Archaeological remains recovered from the Calver Island Excavations (Steatite / Soapstone)

Calver Island (Harrisburg)

Forks of the Ohio Point State Park (Pittsburgh)

Digging Deeper: Buried Landscapes of Pennsylvania

Check it out at: <https://vimeo.com/15855041>

Archaeological remains recovered from I-95 excavations

I-95 Excavations (Philadelphia)

WHAT WE'VE BEEN UP TO IN THE PAST 50 YEARS OF SECTION 106 ARCHAEOLOGY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Deeply Buried Alluvial
Deposits

Deeply Buried Urban
Contexts

Deeply Buried Contexts
Below Previous Thought

WHAT WE THINK WE'LL GET UP TO IN THE NEXT 50 YEARS OF SECTION 106 ARCHAEOLOGY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Predictive Modeling

Utility or Futility?

Alternative
Mitigation

Mitigation Banking

Social Media

Gathered Data

Grey Literature

Stored Collections

Are We Reaching the Public?

Rising Interest in Preservation
Planning

Political Implications

“

”

What do we know better to do better?