

Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania

Home to Susquehanna University

Table Of Contents

- Town & Gown Relationship: A Brief History
- The Susquehanna Female College
- Future Plans

Town & Gown Relationship: A Brief History

- Mid 1900's: Guidance Clinic for high school sophomores & juniors
- 1960's: The start of a primarily service-based Town & Gown Relationship
- Early 1970's: Migrant Day Care center, tutoring, "adopt a grandparent", International Order of the Odd Fellows Orphanage, Middle Creek Watershed Analysis
- 1973: First Snyder County daycare for preschool children
- Late 1900's & Early 2000's: Financial investments into development and beautification of town

The Susquehanna Female College

- 1936 view
- Founded 1858
- Lost majority of architectural integrity

- Never under ownership of Susquehanna
- Historical integrity & artifacts destroyed and scavenged
- No connection to SU in over a century

The Susquehanna Female College

- Walkthrough offered to SU administration
- University given 6 months notice of intended demolition

The Susquehanna Female College

The Susquehanna Female College

Future Plans

- Continued cooperation and support from Susquehanna University
- Continued communication with SU faculty and historians regarding the process of Historical Designation on the National Register