

2019 PA Statewide Conference on Heritage

SCHEDULE

Wednesday June 19th, 2019

---

9AM - 11AM

- Workshop: Preserving Local History
- Workshop: Seeing the Past in Ordinary Places. - Walking Tour and Photography Tips
- Workshop: The Ebbert Spring Archaeological Preserve and Heritage Park Tour

12:15 - 1:30PM

- Lunch & Learn: Protecting Historic Places in Perpetuity: An Overview of Preservation Easements

1:45PM - 3:00PM

- Saving the Virgil Cantini Mosaics
- Creating a Preservation Toolkit By Neighbors, For Neighbors
- No Norm Dorm : Reusing Historic Buildings for Student Housing

3:30PM - 6:00PM

- Conference Plenary and PA Historic Preservation Awards. Reception on the veranda.

6PM - 8PM

- Roving Reception and Preservation Pub Quiz

Thursday June 20th, 2019

---

9AM - 10:15AM

- Identify, Quantify, Engage: Utilizing GIS to Bring Preservation to the People
- Collaborative Planning Approaches for Community Preservation Action and Placemaking Revitalization
- Current Issues in Federal Preservation Law
- Using Pennsylvania's Agricultural Context in the Field and at the Farm: Tips, Tricks, and Updates

10:45AM - 12:00PM

- The Early Automobile Suburb: Creating a Context for Preservation
- The U.S. EPA Brownfields Program: New Tools for Preservation Planning
- From Dream to Reality: Restoration of the National Historic Landmark Metropolitan Opera House
- Decorated Barns and Working Landscapes; Seeing Pennsylvania Farms Up Close

12:15PM - 1:30PM

- Lunch & Learn: Giving Pennsylvania's Historic Schools a Second Life

1:45PM - 3:00PM

- Heritage Areas: 30 Years of Planning for Success
- They Are Certifiable!: Updates to the Certified Local Government program in PA
- Thinking Outside the Test Unit: Alternative and Innovative Approaches to Transportation Archaeology
- How to Speak Barn: The Nuances of Agricultural Architecture

3:30PM - 4:45PM

- Cultural Resource Management: Using Preservation and Conservation to Engage the Public in Preserving Historic Landscapes
- Beyond the National Register Form: A conversation with the PA SHPO's National Register staff
- Planning for a Walkable Community: Adopting Plans to Make your Community Attractive to all Modes of Transportation
- Community Supported Rural Heritage and Stewardship: A Panel Discussion

6:30 - 8:30PM

- SCREENING: Barns of the Susquehanna Valley

Friday June 21st, 2019

---

9:00AM - 10:15AM

- Rehabilitation of the Frankford Avenue Bridge: The Nation's Oldest Highway Bridge
- Preserving Pittsburgh's Parks: the Wind and the Willows in the City of Steel
- There's An Ordinance for That: Historic Preservation Ordinances 101

10:45AM - 12:00PM

- Fostering Pride of Place Through Community Heart & Soul
- Funding to Manage Change: Using State, Federal and Private Funding Programs to Facilitate Community Revitalization Projects and Programs
- Concrete: What Makes (Rehabbing) It So Hard?

12:15PM - 1:30PM

- Franklin County Visitor Bureau Lunch & Learn

1:45PM - 3:00PM

- What Makes a Good Tax Credit Project? Learn Tax Credit Essentials
- Investing in Historic Sacred Places: Lessons Learned from the Recent Work of Partners for Sacred Places